STUDENT ELECTIONS CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction:

The Student Elections Code of Conduct, as a component of the Students' Union Elections Policy, is intended as a guide for the election period. These guidelines should be viewed in addition to the Wilfrid Laurier University Non-Academic Code of Conduct, and all other relevant University policies and applicable laws. Violations of the Student Elections Code of Conduct are subject to the demerit system outlined in the Elections Policy, at the discretion of the Chief Returning Officer, the Chief Governance Officer and/or the Appeals Committee.

1. All Candidates running for an elected position, their Agents, Campaign Teams, and Scrutineers shall:
  - 1.1 Be courteous, polite and respectful to the electorate, the Elections Committee, the Appeals Committee, those members currently holding elected positions, the staff of Wilfrid Laurier University and the Wilfrid Laurier University Students' Union, and their fellow candidates.
  - 1.2 Not harass or otherwise "aggressively campaign" towards any member of the electorate, regardless of whether or not they choose to exercise their vote.
  - 1.3 Refrain at all times from profanity, slander, derogatory statements, or disrespecting the electoral process.
  - 1.4 Never issue, condone or otherwise endorse offensive statements regarding an individual or group's creed, disability, ethnicity, gender identity, race, sexual identity, and commit to engage the electorate with a commitment to equality.
  - 1.5 Not use Students' Union resources for electoral purposes unless explicitly permitted to do so as outlined in the Elections Policy, or as mandated by the Appeals Committee.
  - 1.6 Respect the rules of all Students' Union business operations, including but not limited to the Turret, Wilfs, Brantford Williams, and Golden Grounds.
  - 1.7 Not campaign in the Students' Union offices or the Office of the Secretariat.
  - 1.8 Not purposefully engage in behaviour that would result in the issuance of a demerit, as outlined in the Elections Policy.

Remember that your campaign is a reflection of you as a person and your suitability as a Student Representative. Please exercise common sense and good judgment in making this election fair for all Candidates.

Recommendations based upon the Election Review Committee April

28th, 2017

Voting Days

The suggestions considered from the report:

- The Union continues to hold three (3) voting days.
- The Union ensures that voting booths are ran and are accessible on campus from 8am to 8pm for all voting days as laid out in the constitution.
- The 2017/18 Board of Directors discuss the topic of campaigning on voting days.
- Having Union volunteers assist in promoting voting during voting days.

Events and Scheduling

The suggestions considered from the report:

- The Chief Returning Officer look into altering and restructuring election events (e.g. open forum) to engage more students, reduce repetitive nature of events and make events accessible.
- The Chief Returning Officer is cognizant of candidates' class times and availabilities when scheduling events in order to increase candidate turnout.

Election Period

The suggestions considered from the report:

- The Union examines and potentially modify the length of the election period as they see fit.

Other Suggestions Regarding the Elections Process

The suggestions considered from the report:

- In the case that the Chair is seeking election for any position in the upcoming election, any discussion surrounding elections should be held by the Vice Chair or a Director not planning on running in the upcoming election in order to preserve the integrity of the elections process.
- In the case that they Chair is seeking election for any position in the upcoming election, they do not take part in the process of hiring the Chief Returning Officer to ensure integrity of the elections process.
- The Union works towards not only increasing voter turnout, but also focuses on ensuring voters are informed on Candidate platforms and referenda submissions.
